

UniCredit presents Filarmonica della Scala in Budapest

Every year, the renowned orchestra from Milan performs at some of the leading concert halls and festivals of the world. Filarmonica della Scala is bringing its 2018 international tour to Budapest for an extraordinary concert on 25 January at the Palace of Arts, led by Riccardo Chailly. The program of the concert:

25 January, 2018
Budapest, Bartók Béla National Concert Hall
Riccardo Chailly

Pëtr Iljič Čajkovskij: Symphony n. 2 in C minor op.17

Dmitrij Šostakovič: Lady Macbeth of the Mtsensk District, suite

Igor Fëdorovič Stravinskij: Petrushka (version 1947)

UniCredit has been supporting the orchestra as a partner since 2000 and in 2003 became its main partner. Dr. Mihály Patai, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of UniCredit Bank Hungary Zrt. said he is looking forward to welcoming the guests in Budapest: “We are proud that this extraordinary orchestra can perform again to the music lover audience of the country in Budapest. The most important part of the relationship between UniCredit and Filarmonica is that we share the same goal: to provide the experience of music to the communities that we serve. We are particularly glad that currently music and culture is present in many forms in the life of UniCredit: we intend to support exceptionally talented and dedicated Hungarian musicians through our patron program, Leave Your Mark. We would like to help the candidates of the program delivering the love of music to a broader audience.”
