UniCredit Bank ranked again “Best Cash Manager” in Hungary

Based on nearly 32,000 responses, Euromoney, the prestigious British magazine dealing with money markets for close to half a century, establishes the ranking of the cash management market in all countries. In this year’s survey, UniCredit Bank was awarded “Best Cash Manager” in Hungary, with UniCredit Group claiming similar top positions in Austria, Romania, Bulgaria and Turkey. With this year’s recognition, UniCredit Bank has received the “Best Cash Manager” award for third time in a row.

“The innovative cash management products and services offered by UniCredit – from the simplest and particularly effective payment services such as eBanking and FX platforms to the more complex solutions adapted to client needs – allow our Clients to optimize their financial processes and yields. I’m particularly proud of this award, with Euromoney recognizing the work of our Central Eastern European subsidiary banks, including UniCredit Bank Hungary Zrt. The satisfaction of our Clients is of paramount importance for us, therefore the survey based on their feedback is a great confirmation of achieving this with outstanding quality services”, said Roberto Fiorini, Head of Corporate Investment Banking and Private Banking Division of UniCredit Bank Hungary.
