

Short working hours in the branches at UniCredit Bank Hungary

The health and well-being of employees and customers are UniCredit Bank's top priority.

UniCredit Bank has taken decisive action to guarantee nation-wide service coverage for its clients while protecting the health of both clients and staff.

From March 19th, 2020 for all branches of UniCredit Bank Hungary, the opening hours on working days will be from 9:00 to 15:00.

The branch at 5-6 Szabadság Square in Budapest remains temporarily closed.

UniCredit Bank is kindly asking the clients to access the branch individually, as directed by our staff and also to respect the distance of at least one and a half meters both between staff and among clients themselves.

UniCredit Bank is working actively to ensure that all essential banking services are available through remote channels. With Mobile Bank and eBanking for private individuals as well as SpectraNet Internet Banking for companies, the clients can check their relevant banking products and carry out operations in a simple, fast and secure way. As of March 2nd instant payment system is also available in Hungary, which enables the transactions to be executed only within seconds.
