

Some branches of UniCredit Bank will be closed

The health and well-being of employees and customers are UniCredit Bank's top priority.

Given the current public health situation, UniCredit Bank has taken decisive action to guarantee nation-wide service coverage for its clients, while protecting the health of both clients and staff.

As a precautionary measure, from March 23rd some branches of UniCredit Bank Hungary will be temporarily closed.

Please refer to the branch finder available on the website (https://www.unicreditbank.hu/en/branch_finder.html) and in the Mobile Bank for an overview of all branches and their respective opening hours.

Cash-in enabled ATMs remain available and operate continuously during the temporary closure.

UniCredit Bank is working actively to ensure that all essential banking services are available through remote channels. UniCredit Bank's clients can retrieve all relevant information on products and services and perform all main banking activities in a simple, fast and secure way through our following digital channels: Mobile Bank and eBanking for private individuals as well as SpectraNet Internet Banking for companies. Instant payment system, also available in Hungary as of March 2nd, enables the transactions to be executed only within seconds in 24 hours a day.

UniCredit Bank will continue to actively monitor the situation, always act in everyone's best interests and do the right thing vis a vis all our stakeholders.
